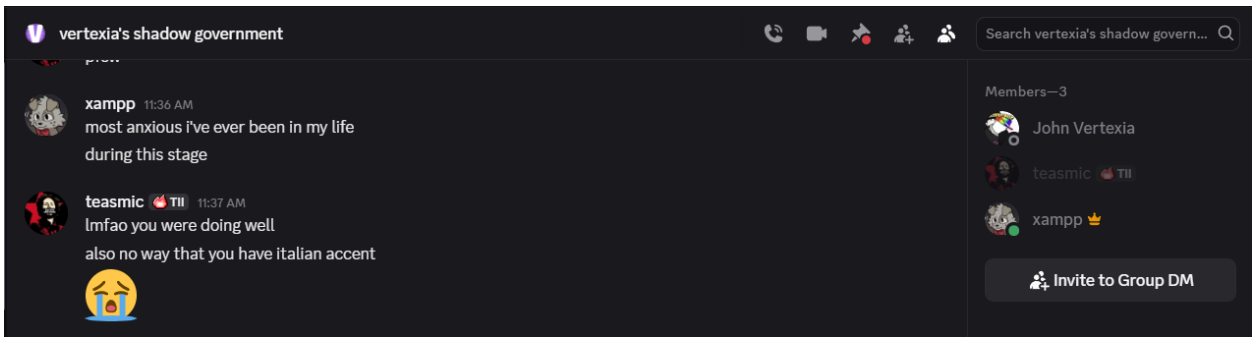
Intro

Hi there, I'm R4! I can't believe I have to do this, but after a long, long while of thinking…
Time to show you guys what happens behind the scenes!
(ft. devjuice/depthy/teasmic)

FYI: These are from the past, however they should still be brought up. I heavily suspect that devjuice hasn't changed; just hiding somewhere or something



Proof that it's Devjuice on the Teasmic account^^

Racist stuff (Slurless)

ERVD was showing an article about “how more criminals were being sent to the firing squad”, and Depthy responded with “Blacks killed”.
Really? Calling all of the criminals black? Seems pretty racist, Devjuice!
And then we just have Greg04. Of course.

ok so sorry for not texting for long i was overthinking my past which fucked up my mood for the rest of the day;
as for my racist comments and other right wing related shit ive said in 2025 - i was far right leaning at the time. yes i admit i was fucked up in the head for quite a time, up until i started reading Marx, which made me realize how this immorality is fucking wrong and that i should strive for a better world and peace for everyone.
coming back to greg... i took greg's word when he said that he's not a lolicon anymore, and that comment was made to make fun of him a bit. but it was still a bit savage of me.
i hope that discussions about my past wont escape dms to other spaces, and that we shouldnt have these discussions anymore. trust me im reminding myself of my past quite a lot, and thats about enough for me.
if youre wondering why was i right leaning at the time, id say, its pretty hard to not snap under pressure of media and a far right country youre in, when your mindset isnt stable and not educated enough. (edited)

The End

Bleh. You might be wondering, why did I not publish this document much earlier?
The reason is; I did not want to leave my community without an actual normal head manager.
However, I simply have to give up that responsibility, as it does not belong to me anymore.

To whoever reads this; Please don't stay in this shithole of a community. I've tried to make it better, yet I always just dug more disgusting facts about staff members, out.

To Whatthexampp;
I'm disappointed that you clearly knew about this yet you didn't do anything. Was it fucking worth it??
Fuck you. I freely gave you a great opportunity when I sent you dozens of screenshots regarding Depthy. And you still didn't do anything!

To Devjuice;
I am heavily disappointed in you.
I am disgusted by you.
I am not willing to help you guys anymore.

Guess Denny was right to be against you guys.
(This doesn't mean I support the things that he said, by the way.)

Farewell,
R4
